Exhibition

Takashi Murakami: From Superflat to Bubblewrap

Saturday 13 July - Sunday 15 September

"I suspect the resulting artistic expression is quite chaotic and confusing, but this has become an ambitious exhibition that I believe people will come to understand as a major career turning point after my passing."
 – Takashi Murakami

This summer, STPI is pleased to present a major showcase of acclaimed Japanese artist Takashi Murakami's exhibition in Singapore. "From Superflat to Bubblewrap" is a milestone exhibition that explores the dynamic practice of Murakami, one of the most notable artists emerging from post-war Japan and a palpable force in the world of contemporary art today. This Annual Special Exhibition debuts a remarkable range of new works by the artist, and features a dazzling Murakami-themed merchandise store. It will be supported by a diverse array of public programmes including an exclusive artist talk, panel discussion, film screenings, printmaking workshops and guided tours in multiple languages. Admission fees apply. Book your ticket on <https://stpithecornershop.com/products/detail/ticket-takashi-murakami-from-superflat-to-bubblewrap>
